Shrine Corner

Football Game Funraiser

The November 1st Football Game Shrine Funraiser to watch the Detroit Lions versus the Minnesota Vikings at Ford Field in Detroit was a success.

Sandy Slotta roots for both teams...

The festivities started at 12:30 pm with over 40 people showing up to have a good time. The kitchen help was great providing everyone with many options: i.e. trail mix, queso and pumpkin dip, cowboy caviar, Coney Islands, coleslaw, a big pot of chili with all the fixings, and, of course, dessert. We had refreshments as well.

You did not need to eat for the rest of the day and maybe not even the next—LOL. Also, there were two jerseys, two traditional hats, a Viking helmet, a hat that looked like a Lion and homemade footballs which were given away during the game.

Bob Jaloszynski sports his prize hat while talking with brother-in-law, Dan Carr.

The game was great in that the Detroit Lions beat the Minnesota Vikings 19 - 15. Everyone seemed happy with the outcome—although one participant decided to wear a Chicago Bear sweater.

The generosity was very nice to see. We collected $915 in Funraiser donations for the maintenance of our shrine, and I thank you all for it.

This was our third football game Funraiser and the Detroit Lions have won all three. Yah! I hope to see all of you back with more attendees at our next event.

Peace be with you.
Monte Mariani, Shrine Director
