The “Cheerful Ascetic” Redemptorist Father Francis Xavier Seelos, (1819-1867)

Feast Day October 5

Beatified by Pope John Paul II in 2000, Fr. Seelos possessed great mystical gifts due to his life of intense prayer and penance. His innate kindness, understanding and dedication to the needs of the faithful from all walks of life makes him an outstanding model for those in religious life and laity alike.

A year after emigrating from Bavaria to America in 1843 he was ordained a Redemptorist priest. He ministered mainly in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Michigan, and directed two seminaries.

During the Civil War, he petitioned President Lincoln to exempt seminarians from the draft and, when refused, he ordained them because priests were exempt.

Seelos was a spiritual father to tens of thousands, giving counsel and hearing the confessions of all who came to him. Despite his untimely death at age 48, so profound was his apostolic zeal that sickness, persecution, and even the upheaval caused by civil war could not stop him.

In 1866 he began working with immigrants in New Orleans and died in a yellow fever epidemic. The heroic and miraculous religious life of Fr. Seelos inspires clergy, religious, laity and specifically those seeking a miracle of healing throughout the world.

Prayer for Respect Life

May our resolve be strengthened to uphold the to cherish and protect the gift of every human life. That the life of every person, from conception to natural death, will be protected in our laws. For women and men suffering after abortion, may the Church help them find peace and healing through Christ's endless mercy. For those nearing the end of life, may they receive care that respects their dignity and protects their lives as they place their hope in the promise of eternal life.

May God grant us the wisdom and courage to lovingly protect His gift of human life at every stage, in sickness and in health. Amen

HEART PROBLEMS?

"But the LORD said to Samuel, '... Man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.'"

1 Samuel 16:7 Do you remember the incredible basketball great, Pistol Pete Maravich? In his college career at LSU, he scored more points than any collegiate player in history with a scoring average of 44.2 points per game, even before there was a three point shot.

At the age of 40, Pistol Pete, a young, on-fire Christian, died suddenly during a pick-up basketball game. The cause of death was a rare heart defect. Although he was seemingly in great shape, his heart was not.

SPIRITUAL HEART PROBLEMS

When it comes to heart trouble, pastors see more of it than a cardiologist. Many Christians are walking around with serious heart issues - "The heart of the human problem is the problem of the human heart."

God does not see as man sees. What does He see when He looks at your heart? One that is truly committed to and in love with Jesus... or one that is a little cool and lacks passion?

AMEN!

Mrs. Jones was fumbling in her purse for her offering when a television remote fell out and clattered into the aisle. The curious usher bent over to retrieve it for her and whispered, "Do you always carry your TV remote to church?"

"No," she replied, "but my husband refused to come with me this morning, and I figured this was the worst thing I could do to him legally."

Lessons From the Geese

1. As geese flap their wings they create an uplift for the bird following. By flying in a V formation, the whole flock adds 71% greater flying range than if any bird were to fly alone. When a group or team cooperates, it can achieve great things.

2. Whenever a goose falls out of formation, it feels the drag and resistance of flying alone, and gets back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front.

This dovetails wonderfully with the first point.

Going it alone - being independent of the flock (church family) leads to falling behind.

3. When the lead goose gets tired, it rotates back into formation and another goose flies at the point position.

Throughout the Bible we see God providing fresh leadership to preside over His people. When Moses' work had been completed, Joshua was trained and ready to take over. Elisha picked up the mantle that had fallen from Elijah's shoulders. It pays to take turns doing the church tasks and sharing leadership.

4. The geese in formation honk from behind to encourage those up front to keep up their speed.

Through our prayers and kind words we can give strength to others. Now more than ever, we all need the encouragement only our church family can give.

5. When a goose gets sick or wounded or is shot down, two geese drop out of formation and follow it down to help and protect it. They stay with it until it is able to fly again or dies. They then launch out on their own, with another formation or to catch up with the flock.

The church, God's flock, is composed of His called children, thus it is a family. He expects us to extend the same care to each other as we would any member of our physical families.

To do its work most fully and successfully, the body of Christ must "fly" together.
